The Warehouse Night Selector reports directly to the Night Warehouse Supervisor. The main duties are to select, assemble, and palletize product from a number of locations within the warehouse including the cooler, dry, freezer, and storage areas according to established routing and stop labels. Once palletized, product must be wrapped and loaded according to truck and stop criteria for A.M. delivery.

Role and Responsibilities
- Selects, assembles, palletizes, and otherwise handles cases, boxes, bags, frozen foods, dairy products, produce, proteins, and related products as identified on pick tickets, in the quantities specified, for delivery
- Safely operates pallet jacks and stock pickers
- Accountable for meeting productivity, accuracy, and safety work standards
- Assists with training and development of new associates

Schedule
Sunday- Thursday 6:30pm-3pm

Qualifications and Education Requirements
- High school diploma or a GED
- 1+ years experience loading and selecting merchandise in a warehouse
- 1-2 years experience with electric power equipment
- Basic reading, writing and math skills to properly identify products and mark them for delivery
- Ability to understand the slot-sequencing layout of the warehouse and labels that are placed on selected products
- Ability to work in varying temperatures in order to select product from refrigerated, frozen, and dry picking locations
- Ability to follow instructions to work safely, efficiently, and accurately using company provided equipment
- Ability to lift products weighing between 40-60 lbs. frequently and products weighing up to 100 lbs. occasionally